

Diego M. Santiago, Esq.

Diego M. Santiago, Esq. is an Associate Court Attorney with New York City Family Court, where he has worked since 2001. His major area of expertise is Family and Domestic Relations Law. He was born in Manhattan and raised in the Highbridge section of the Bronx. He graduated from Cardinal Spellman High School, St. John's University and Touro College, Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center. Mr. Santiago is a 1988 Council on Legal Education Opportunity (CLEO) Fellow and has been a licensed attorney in New York State since 1993. Mr. Santiago has worked at New York City Human Resources Administration, the Administration for Children's Services and the Latino Commission on AIDS. As a Court Attorney, he has worked in New York County, Kings and Bronx County Family Courts. He has also served as a Family Court Support Magistrate and as Supervising Court Attorney in Bronx Family Court. Professor Santiago has taught at Lehman College (CUNY), Metropolitan College of New York and is currently an adjunct professor at Monroe College School of Criminal Justice.