

Matthew Sciarrino, Jr, Esq.

Matthew Sciarrino graduated magna cum laude from St. John's University in 1990. He received a St. Thomas More scholarship to St. John's University School of Law and he graduated in 1993.

He is admitted to the courts of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Before becoming a Judge, he served as the Principal Law Clerk to Justice Joseph Maltese in the Criminal Courts of Staten Island and Brooklyn handling felonies and misdemeanors and in the Civil Part of the Richmond County Supreme Court handling medical malpractice and other actions.

On January 3, 2005, Michael R. Bloomberg appointed Matthew Sciarrino, Jr. as an Interim New York City Civil Court Judge and in 2006 Michael R. Bloomberg appointed Judge Sciarrino to a full term in the New York City Criminal Court. He has sat in Kings, Richmond and New York Counties. In 2012 he presided over a Jury Part in NY County and was the Presiding Judge in a Special Part of the Occupy Wall Street defendants. In 2015, he was appointed an Acting Justice of the Supreme Court, Kings County, Criminal Term. He currently sits in AP1-F, a Felony Waiver Part.

He is also the current editor of the Richmond County Bar Association Journal and has numerous published decisions and articles.

He is married and has two children, a college freshman and a senior, attending public high school.