

Family Law CLE - October 13, 2017

Child Support

Cheryl Montgomery, Esq.

1990 graduate of the Bridgeport School of Law

Admitted to the bar in New York, Connecticut and New Jersey

Currently an Associate Court Attorney in the Family Court. Since 1992 have served as a Court Attorney in Family Court , pre and post specialization, in three boroughs. Formerly a trial attorney for the Administration for Children Services.

Served on numerous committees pertaining to the Strategic Plan, Juvenile Delinquency, Child Protective issues and the implementation of Podcasts.

Authored a podcast discussion regarding service of process in Termination of Parental Rights matters, as well as written outlines regarding issues in Juvenile Delinquency and Child support.