The court system will be hosting free webinars to discuss eligibility for the program and the application process. Time is running out for eligible judges and employees to take advantage of this program.

About the Public Student Loan Forgiveness Program:

Under a COVID-emergency program from the U.S. Department of Education, many federal student loans are being forgiven for government/nonprofit workers. The Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) Program forgives the remaining balance on your Direct Loans after you have made 120 qualifying monthly payments under a qualifying repayment plan while working full-time for a qualifying employer. However, the PSLF Program is set to expire October 31, 2022. Below please find information about the Program along with some helpful tools on how to determine if your loans are eligible for forgiveness and the Certification and Application Form required to apply for this benefit.

All federal student loan borrowers who work in public service should immediately determine their eligibility by using the 20 minute Help Tool at the US Department of Education's website: StudentAid.gov/PSLF.
